

Exhibit 1 – Scope of Work – Engineering, Planning, and Operations
Item 8 – Power Supply Planning and Contract Negotiation

Project Title: Wholesale Power Procurement Project ID: 115.78/.781/.782

Project Location: Chambersburg, Pennsylvania

Client Name: Borough of Chambersburg

Description of Work: Evaluate wholesale power supply portfolio needs and make recommendations for procurement of power supply. Develop and distribute a Request for Proposal (RFP) for competitive bidding process and evaluate all proposals. Recommend highest ranked proposal and enter into negotiations for power supply agreement agreeable to all parties.

Year Completed: 2007

Adherence to Schedule: Yes

Total Cost of DAI Contract: $130,000.00

Project Team Member	Role
Stephen D. Hirsch	Project Manager - Strategy development, project management, overall planning and implementation, coordination with client, communication with potential suppliers, review of proposals, direct contract negotiations and drafting of power supply agreement.
David V. Downes, P.E.	Chief Executive Officer - Supporting consultation, strategy development, communications with client and potential power suppliers.
Christopher S. Simms	Sr. Analyst - Data accumulation, review, and verification. Preparation of Request for Proposal. Review, power supply cost modeling, quantification, evaluation and summarization of power supply proposals.

Additional Questions?

We are here through every step of the process, including the information gathering stage. In fact, we understand this to be one of the most important aspects of locating a consultant capable of handling your project.

Call Today! (410) 546-4422